MAKING PREDICTIONS

I DON'T DANCE

In the depths of the forest there lived a monkey. His name was Max and he loved spending time with his friends, but there was one big problem. Max's friends all loved to dance. Unfortunately Max didn't know how to dance so he always felt left out! Henry the hippopotamus danced the tango. Ryan the rhinoceros danced the rumba. Freda the falcon danced the foxtrot. Chelsea the cheetah danced the cha-cha. One night Max decided it was time that he learnt to dance. He got up on the dance floor and he started to move. First he felt his legs start to shake. Then his arms started to swing. Finally his head began to nod.

THE BRAVE ANT

Andy the ant worked every day with his colony. They went out looking for food and then they would carry the crumbs back to their anthill to store for later. One day they were out searching when big rain drops started to fall from the sky. The rain fell heavier and heavier and suddenly a large pool of water formed in front of them. Andy heard yelling and saw that his friend Ben was trapped in the middle of the water. He knew he had to act quickly to save his friend. He looked around for a something, anything that would help him to pull Ben out of the water!
